No. 490.—

The following draft of certain amendments in the rules relating to establishments under municipal control, published under Local Self-Government Department Notification No. 1016 of 29-1-1933, 1932 of Part I of the Port St. George Gazette, dated the 26th November 1933, which the Government are pleased to appoint an inspection of town and the 1st April 1934 for the comparison, publication and submission to Government by the Hyderabad Municipal Council of the present town-planning scheme in respect of all land within the municipality and in its vicinity.

DRAFT AMENDMENTS.

1. In the said rules, for the word 'chairman' wherever it occurs, the words 'executive authority' shall be substituted.

2. For rule 4 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

4. (1) Every establishment to be subject to regulation for a period of less than six months shall be subject to regulation for a period of three years. Such regulation may be either in the said rules or in any other rule with similar effect.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, the expression 'minor service' has the same meaning as in the Fundamental Rules.

(2) The executive authority may, before the expiry of the period of regulation, for reasons to be specified in writing, terminate the regulation of any person and revert him to his permanent post or office, or discharge him from the municipal service in other cases.

(3) The order in which persons who are on probation and persons who have completed their period of probation shall be discharged or reverted to their permanent posts shall be determined by the local body.

2nd. The persons who are on probation, in order of seniority, and

3rd. The persons who have completed their period of probation, in order of seniority.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, persons on probation who are on probation shall be determined by the local body of their service which results for probation and as between persons who have completed their period of probation, by the order in which the probation was completed.

(4) Persons who have been discharged or reverted to their permanent posts under sub-rule (3) shall be reappointed on permanent basis in the service of the local body and in the order in which they were discharged or reverted.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-rule shall be deemed to give any such person a right to be reappointed in preference to persons who have been discharged or reverted under sub-rule (3), (4) or (5) of sub-rule (a) of rule 18 and who are entitled to reappointment under rule 20.

(5) A person who has completed his period of probation shall be considered as an eligible person for appointment. Where there are two or more such persons, the person who completed his period of probation earliest shall be considered first.

3. For rule 11 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"11. No officer exercising an administrative function in any office or service of a municipal council shall also exercise any other office or service conferred by the Local Government."

4. For rule 18 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"18. (a) When any post or posts are abolished, persons shall be selected for discharge or reversion from the rank concerned in the following order, namely:—

(i) persons who have not completed their period of probation in order of seniority;

(ii) persons who have attained the age of fifty-five years, in order of seniority;

(iii) persons with thirty years of service qualifying for pension or provident fund, in order of seniority;

(iv) persons who have completed their period of probation, in order of seniority; and

(v) persons who are on probation, in order of seniority.

Provided that no officer or person shall be discharged on the abolition of any establishment unless he matches the provided for above.

Explanation.—(i) and (ii) shall be subject to the order in which they are entitled to be selected within the meaning of this sub-rule.

Explanation.—(iii) shall be subject to the order in which they are entitled to be selected within the meaning of this sub-rule. (iv) shall be subject to the order in which they are entitled to be selected within the meaning of this sub-rule.

Explanation.—(v) shall be subject to the order in which they are entitled to be selected within the meaning of this sub-rule.

(b) In cases falling under clause (i), above:—

(i) in order of seniority; and

(ii) in order of seniority; and

(iii) in order of seniority; and

(iv) in order of seniority; and

(v) in order of seniority; and

(vi) in order of seniority; and

(vii) in order of seniority; and

(viii) in order of seniority; and

(ix) in order of seniority; and

(x) in order of seniority; and

(xi) in order of seniority; and

(xii) in order of seniority; and

(xiii) in order of seniority; and

(xiv) in order of seniority; and

(xv) in order of seniority; and

(xvi) in order of seniority; and

(xvii) in order of seniority; and

(xviii) in order of seniority; and

(xix) in order of seniority; and persons detained of such appointments are available, appointments being made to the reverse of the order in which they were discharged or reverted from such rank.

Provided that in the case of a person who did not in the date of his discharge or reversion hold the post satisfactorily, he possesses the qualification, if any, provided for the post or has, before discharge or reversion, been exempted by competent authority from the possession of such qualifications.

Provided also that if the appointing authority considers it undesirable that any appointed person should be appointed under the rules, such authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and communicated to the person concerned, refuse to appoint him; and an appeal shall lie from such refusal as if it were an order of dismissal.

Provided further that nothing contained in these rules shall be deemed to give any person discharged or reverted under clause (3) or (4) of sub-rule 10 a right to be reappointed in preference to another who has been discharged or reverted later under sub-rule (3) of rule 5 and who is entitled to reappointment under sub-rule (3) of that rule.

21. Any person eligible for reappointment under rule 20, shall be entitled to appeal to the authority to whom an appeal lies, an order dismissing him would be, on the ground that such person who should have been reappointed later but has been employed before him. Such appeal shall be preferred within six months after the date on which such other person was reappointed.

22. Any interruption due to discharge under sub-rule (3) of rule 20 in the service of a person who is subsequently re-employed under rule 20, shall not extend beyond the date of his first re-employment and shall be deemed for all purposes to be in continuous service from the date of his discharge. Any period of probationary employment by any such person who is a probationer at the time of his discharge or reversion shall count towards the total period of probation prescribed in these rules.

IN GENERAL.

The following draft of articles incorporated in the rules relating to establishments under district and table board discipline are: Local Self-Government Department Notification No. 130 of 1929, 907 in 1930 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 11th September 1931, which the Government, acting with Executive Council, made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 23, sub-section (1) of section 73 and clause (3) of sub-section (3) of section 100 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XXX of 1920) and clause (3) of sub-rule (3) of rule 1-11 of Schedule V to the same Act, it hereby published as required by clause (1) of section 106 of the said Act for general information. Notice is hereby given that the draft will be open for objection with effect on receipt from the date of publication of this notification and that any objection or suggestion which may be received with effect thereon before the period specified will be considered by the Government acting with Members.

SHORT ABSTRACTS.

1. For rule 7 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"7. (1) Every appointment to a post as superior service shall be subject to probation for a period of two years or such other as may be specified in the order of appointment, or in any other part with order of appointment.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, the expression 'superior service' has the same meaning as in the Fundamental Rules.

(2) The appointing authority may, before the expiry of the period of probation, for reasons to be recorded in writing, terminate the probation of any person and revert him to his permanent post if he is found to be incompetent, inefficient, or incapable, or discharge him from the service of the local board in other cases.

(3) The order in which persons who are on probation and are eligible for discharge or reversion shall be determined shall be determined or reverted for want of vacancies shall be—first, the persons who are on probation, in order of seniority, and second, the persons who have completed their period of probation, in order of seniority.

A-2

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, persons who are on probation shall be determined by the total length of time served which counts for probation, and as persons who have completed their period of probation, by the date on which the probation was completed.

(4) Persons who have been discharged or reverted for want of vacancies under sub-rule (3) shall be reappointed to vacancies arise in the service of the order laid down in that sub-rule.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-rule shall be deemed to give any such person a right to be reappointed in preference to another who has been discharged or reverted later under clause (1), (3) or (4) of sub-rule 10 of rule 11, and who is entitled to reappointment under rule 21, rule 20.

(5) A person who has completed his period of probation shall be considered as an ordinary employee. When there are two or more such subordinates, the person who has completed his period of probation earliest shall be considered first."

2. For rule 12 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"12. No order sanctioning an advance (except in the case of an officer of a district board) shall take effect unless and until it has been confirmed by the local Government."

3. For rule 17 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"17. (a) When any post or posts are abolished, persons shall be considered for discharge or reversion from the rank concerned in the following order, namely:—

(1) persons who have not completed their period of probation, in order of seniority;

(2) persons who have attained the age of retirement, in order of seniority;

(3) persons with thirty years of service (including the period of probation), in order of seniority;

(4) persons who have completed their period of probation, in order of seniority, and

(5) persons who have attained the age of retirement, in order of seniority."

Provided that no order or sanction shall be made in the absence of the sanction of the authority to whom an appeal lies, which is referred shall be deemed to be included within the meaning of this sub-rule.

Explanation.—(1) The order for purposes of sub-rule (1) of this rule shall be determined by the group of persons of each of the same grade or of higher grade, if any, in which transfer, appointments or promotions are normally made by the local authority.

Explanation.—(2) For the purpose of this sub-rule (3) or seniority shall be determined—

(a) in cases falling under clause (1), according to the (1st) block of service which counts for probation;

(b) in cases falling under clause (2) and (3), according to the length of service qualifying the person or for previous posts;

(c) in cases falling under clause (4), according to the date on which the probation was completed, and

(d) in cases falling under clause (5), according to the position in the senior list.

(3) Where a person is on probation under clause (3) of sub-rule (3) he shall be considered in which promotion are normally made from a lower grade, in that, if he is shown, instead of being discharged or reverted to a lower grade, he shall be placed in the top of the next higher grade and be entitled to the advantages of persons on probation or reversion from such lower grade."

4. Rule 20 of the said rules shall be omitted and after rule 23 of the said rules, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"26. Any person who is discharged or reverted under sub-rule (3) of rule 11 shall, within one month after the date on which he was informed of the order of discharge or reversion, be entitled to appeal against such order to the Government, and that order shall be deemed to be confirmed by the Government if no appeal is made within the period of one month after the date on which he was informed of the order of discharge or reversion."
